

THOMAS BROADSIDE CO.

THE FIRST IMPRESSION

History has a pulse.

Founding documents. A family press.
Something worth keeping.

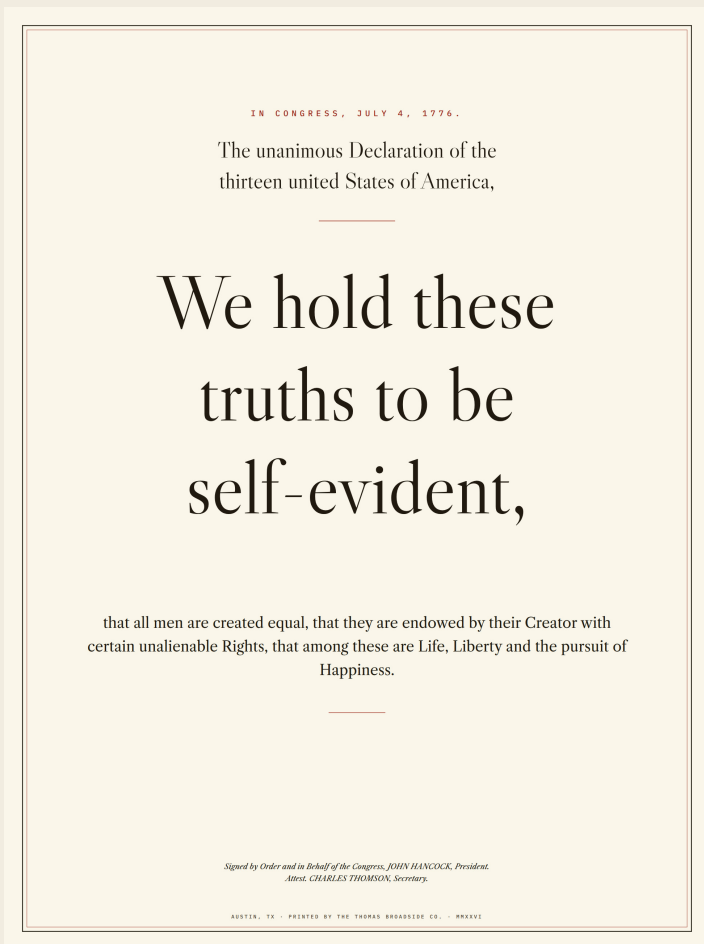

The place behind the paper.

A broadside starts with words. Ours also starts with a working shop in Austin, Texas.

Thomas Broadside Co. is a venture of Thomas Graphics Inc. We bring the founding documents of America and the Western canon into the rooms where we live, learn, and work. The catalog, the paper, and the press belong to the same story.

A way in. A work to keep.

I The digital broadside

The catalog's own typesetting, as a file you can print. A beginning for a wall, a lesson, or a gift.

II The press print

Printed on heavy cream cover in Austin. The physical sheet, made on our own press.

III The numbered edition

The Declaration on cotton paper, numbered of 250, with an embossed maker's mark. A work to keep.

A classroom.
A study.
A place of work.

A document on a wall can begin a conversation that a screen never will. Give people something to stop before, read, and return to.

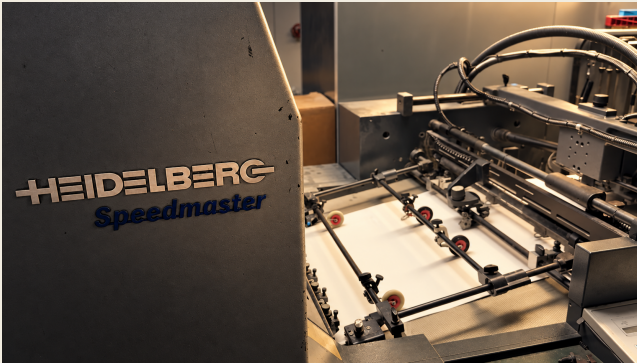

For school orders, collections, business gifts, and wholesale inquiries, write the shop desk. Tell us the room, the quantity, and the occasion. We will talk through the right sheets with you.
